

THE CZAR GETS REPORT OF A HOT FIGHT

Receives Graphic Account of Battle on July 31 From Gen. Sakharoff Who Says Action Was Not Decisive.

HEAVY LOSSES ARE SUSTAINED

Musicians Make Brilliant Advance in Open Order With Fixed Bayonets and Compel Japanese to Evacuate Their Position.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—The emperor has received the following dispatch from Lieutenant General Sakharoff, dated Aug. 3:

Lieutenant General Zassulitch reports the following details: "In the fighting of July 31 the operations were not decisive. The action of the Japanese on our front on July 30 continued me that they were making an attack with their main forces on our south front near Oushchoumou towards Dapoutza and Pkhallan-loun. From dawn of July 31 we heard cannonading on our right flank, which obliged me to hurry down to the south front, where, at first from a battery and later from a range of hills, I directed the course of the fight.

"The battle began under the most favorable auspices for us. Simultaneously with the attack on the heights, the center of our position, the Japanese directed an attack against Major General Mischevsk's detachment and against our right flank. The beginning of the fighting showed the superiority of our artillery over that of the Japanese. Not only did our batteries silence the Japanese guns previously in position and absolutely prevent them leaving their positions, but the batteries sustained no loss and were able to develop their fire at their leisure.

Enemy Sustains Heavy Loss. "At 10 o'clock I received the following note from Lieutenant Colonel Solomsky: 'The Japanese turning movement has been stopped, the enemy sustaining enormous losses. We have many wounded. The wounded include two officers and a surgeon. I am making a firm stand.'

"Simultaneously with the receipt of this report it was seen that our detachment had evacuated three crests of the mountain range. It was evident that Solomsky had too strong a force to cope with and had been obliged to give ground somewhat. He continued however to hold his position. After reinforcing Solomsky with two battalions and afterwards with two and three quarters battalions and desiring to centralize the command of the troops I dispatched Colonel Polovitch Lepovatz with orders to take command of all troops engaged in that position.

"The fastidious continued on our right flank without becoming threatening. Our artillery continued to crush the enemy's artillery with its fire, although the Japanese had brought mountain and field guns into action. At 2:40 p. m. I received a report that a regiment posted at the extreme right flank had retired from its position in the mountains, having had its flank turned. Six disintegrated guns were abandoned. Two officers were killed and two wounded, and the commander of a battery injured.

Forced to Spike Guns. "Before this had happened the Japanese had placed two more batteries on the left which had previously taken up their position there and with their batteries on the extreme left they began to bombard our battery as well as to enfilade the right flank of our formation. This was the cause of the destruction of our battery, and the serious loss of troops on our right flank. The battery was completely shattered, but at the beginning of the action we succeeded in saving four guns, while four others were left on the field completely disabled. Of these four, however, two had to be applied and abandoned owing to lack of horse.

"With the view of distracting the attention of the Japanese from our right flank I directed Colonel Lepovatz at 5 o'clock when the heat had diminished, to order the soldiers to take off their equipment and assume the offensive. To support this offensive movement I ordered our batteries to open a hot fire on the ridges held by the Japanese. The fire of our guns which had previously bombarded this point, was murderous, and the Japanese again sustained many killed or wounded.

"Our attack in open order astonished all beholders. Our men in this formation advanced swiftly across the principal mountain range, rushing on both sides with fixed bayonets the Japanese who were unable to sustain the shock and quickly evacuated the three crests they had captured. I am informed by Major Lordkipanitze that those who had remained were bayoneted. After this brilliant affair I ordered Colonel Lepovatz to stop and push no further. At 7 o'clock I received an order to retire to the direction of Balcheg.

Over 1,000 Killed or Wounded. "According to the report of the commander of a Cossack regiment which reconnoitered the valley of Dapoutza during the battle, as well as organized the delivery of ammunition and the removal of wounded three divisions of Japanese were observed moving south through the valley of Dapoutza. Our losses on July 31 and July 30 are given up to the present estimated at 25 officers and slightly over 1,000 men, killed or wounded."

Of Judge Parker from the Peaceful Shades of Esophus.

Beopina, Aug. 5.—[Special.]—Judge Alton B. Parker left here this morning on a north bound train. His destination is unknown. The Judge didn't buy a ticket.

Two reports are out concerning the Democratic candidate for President's mysterious disappearance. One is that he has gone on the hunt of a cooler place along the Hudson to take his daily plunge. Another rumor is that Judge Parker's recent visit to the White House was his destination and that after a conference with Dave Hill, another telegram may be flashed on the country's anxiously waiting Democracy.

MERCHANTS' PICNIC.

An Enthusiastic But Slimly Attended Meeting Held Last Night.

ALQUIPPA PARK IS SELECTED

And Thursday, August 25, the Date Named for General Closing of Business for Day's Outing—Committees Who Were Named.

The merchants of Connellsville and New Haven will have a picnic on Thursday, August 25. The date and place were set at a meeting of merchants in the Council Chamber at City Hall on Thursday evening. While there was not a large attendance, many merchants and business men sent word that they would be heartily in favor of any action taken. About 20 business men or their representatives were present. Charles A. Brill acted as chairman.

Alquippa was selected as the place for holding the picnic. The Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad gives a rate of 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for children. This is for the round trip. The run can be made in two hours and a half. Agent W. H. Thomas of New Haven was present to represent the railroad company. Today he had the passenger department of the Lake Erie reserve the park for Connellsville and New Haven's business men on the 25th of this month. Idlewild was also considered, but the rate named by the Pennsylvania railroad was too high.

Chairman Brill appointed the following committees: Executive Committee, Henry Rhodes, J. R. Davidson, J. M. Doyle, F. T. Adams and J. P. Ludwig. Committees on canvassing the town with papers agreeing to close on August 25 and attend the picnic, Henry Rhodes and R. C. Dunn, New Haven; Pennsylvania railroad north on Pittsburg street, Daniel Sinclair and W. R. Scott; Pennsylvania railroad to Main street south, S. M. Goodman and W. J. HOG SCARED HORSE.

Ran Between Animal's Legs and Broke on Buggy Is Result.

David P. Larimer had his horse and buggy tied near his home at Perryopolis on Thursday evening. While the family were in the house a hog ran between the horse's legs and so frightened the animal that it broke loose, and running against a nearby building wrecked one front wheel and broke the harness in pieces.

Had it not been for the gentleness of the horse the results might have been very serious, as the horse is a valuable one.

SNADER'S DEFENSE.

In a Suit Brought Recently by the Aaron Company.

S. S. Snader of Connellsville has prepared and filed his defense to a suit entered against him a few days ago by the Aaron Furniture Company of this place. Snader says that the bill of goods over which the dispute arose was leased to J. C. Parker by the plaintiff company and by them delivered to his home on East Fairview avenue. The property in which Parker lived was rented from the defendant. The latter alleges that the furniture company knew the situation when the goods were delivered to the Parker home. He says that on May 30, 1904, Parker's rent bill was $40.35. On that date he deserted his wife and left the goods in the house. Mrs. Parker turned everything over to Snader, who in turn had a landlord's warrant issued because of the back rent.

After due appraisal and advertisement, they were sold for $45.55. Of this amount $3 was paid out as costs, and the remainder applied to the rent account with the exception of $112, which balance is still held until the rightful owner can be determined.

ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE.

Connellsville Italian Woman Seeks It From Her Husband.

Theresa Petronio of Connellsville has declared that in her case, at least, marriage is a dismal failure. And it didn't take her long to find it out, either. She and Frank Petronio were married here on May 4, 1904, and lived together until July 10, when the libelant left home. In her papers, prepared by Attorney L. A. Edwards, Mrs. Petronio says that shortly after their marriage her husband began to abuse her and inflicted such indignities that her life became a burden. She further says that by reason of this unwarranted treatment she was obliged to leave home in order to protect her life and health.

The court was asked to command the respondent to appear at the opening of September court to answer the charges outlined in the libel. The papers were presented to Judge Reppert at chambers and a subpoena awarded as prayed for.

PARKER RELEASED.

Did a Year in the County Jail for Wife Desertion.

An order of court has been made directing that Charles B. Parker be released from the county jail on payment of costs. His wife, Mary Parker, prosecuted him before Squire W. H. Berger of New Haven on charges of desertion and non-support. The March grand jury found a true bill against Parker and on March 10 of the same month the case was called for trial. The defendant pleaded not guilty, but after the case had progressed for some time he withdrew this plea and entered one of guilty. On May 13, he was sentenced to one year in the county jail. The bill of costs amounting to $47.11 was paid this week.

CAMPBELL'S PECULIAR DEATH.

After Taking the Part of Uniontown Men He Was Found Drowned in the Monongahela River—Investigation Now Being Made.

Uniontown, August 5.—[Special.]—Constable Charles M. Fee this morning arrested Lafayette McMahon and David Henderson for felonious assault. McMahon is a prominent distiller at Gray's Landing and Henderson is a member of the Monongahela Town Council. The arrests are the result of a fight that occurred about two weeks ago between a party of campers near Gray's Landing. McMahon and Henderson were members of one camp. Frank Robinson and several other Uniontown people were in another camp nearby. Trouble over some fish lines one evening started a quarrel. It resulted in blows and Robinson was badly used up. William Campbell of Gray's Landing, who was with McMahon and Henderson at the time, acted as peacemaker. He prevented Robinson from getting a worse beating than he received and the latter says saved his life, as his assailants had threatened to kill him, or were attacking him with an instrument that would have killed him.

After the combatants had been separated Campbell, Henderson and McMahon, it is alleged, got in a boat and started to row down the river. The Uniontown campers soon heard loud calls for help. It was dark at the time, and whoever called out evidently was in dire distress. He called that he was drowning and pitiously asked for help.

The following morning Campbell was reported missing and his body was found in the river soon afterward. It is claimed by Campbell's companions that he took cramps after falling out of the boat and drowned before they could rescue him. Each of the men arrested by Constable Fee gave bail in the sum of $800 for a hearing. The matter of Campbell's death will likely be further investigated as a result of the arrest of McMahon and Henderson. The drowning occurred within the jurisdiction of the Greene county officials.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

Church of Christ Congregation at Perryopolis Gave It.

The annual picnic held by the Sunday school of the Church of Christ in Perryopolis on August 3 was the largest ever held by the school there being upwards of 300 people in the grove. Alfred Fuller very kindly gave permission to the school to use his nice grove west of town and also made a contribution toward the treating of the children to refreshments. As early as nine o'clock children began to gather and by eleven there were over 100 children in the grove. At twelve nearly 300 people were seated on the ground enjoying a well prepared dinner of everything from the characteristically hard boiled egg to deliciously fried spring chickens. Large balloons the inscription "Christian Sunday School picnic." At three o'clock ice cream was served and at five all started home with the cheering recollection of a day of enjoyment spent under the shade of the "Sheltering Oaks."

On the program was base ball, high swings, games, balloons, big dinner, ice cream and an all around good time. The only bad feature of the picnic was that two of the fire swings hung with much labor the night before were stolen by some miscreant who has no better use for his time than to occupy it in stealing. He might be a credit to a gang of Fiji Islanders, but never to a civilized community. Should he continue as he has started his association with a rope might not be as pleasing to himself as now.

REBEKAH PICNIC.

Daughters Will Assemble at Soisson Park August 19.

The Daughters of Rebekah of Fayette county will hold a union picnic at Soisson park Friday, August 19. One of the special attractions of the day will be a game of base ball between the ladies and gentlemen. R. McGuire Vance will umpire for the ladies. An address will be made by Miss Abby Lynch of Allegheny, first Past President of the State Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania. Many attractions are being planned and a pleasant time is anticipated. All are invited to attend.

SUES TROLLEY COMPANY.

Says a Team of His Was Hit and Damaged to Extent of $500.

David C. Foltz of Dunbar has sued the trolley company to recover $500 for injury to his team while attempting to cross the tracks in that town on October 21, 1903. His wagon was struck and one of the horses so badly hurt that it died a little later, while the wagon was entirely wrecked. Foltz alleges that the car was being run negligently and charges negligence on the part of the defendant company.

LOVE FOR PONIES.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—It was his love for the "ponies" that kept Walter Strouse, formerly of Connelldale, from being a wealthy man. He was clever and wily, and all his schemes to defraud succeeded admirably, but he quickly spent the money on the races. After his arrest while attempting to pass a forged check on the Indiana National Bank his room at the Denison was searched and at least a pack measure of pool tickets was found. They were issued on nearly every race track in the country, and were for large amounts. As far as is known the "bookies" are the only people who ever got ahead of Strouse. While at the Denison in this city during the recent meet Strouse was a daily visitor at the track.

Strouse arrived in this city June 1 and registered at the Denison at Capt. William Stanton. Through his genial ways and smooth tongue he quickly made friends and was invited into the best society in the city. He was in fact, a sort of social lion. He would entertain the company with accounts of his escapades with counterfeits as a secret service officer. While in this city Strouse was playing a double role. He was registered at the Denison as Capt. Stanton, but he also received mail at the general delivery at the postoffice under the name of George A. H. Hoffman.

Strouse tells a romantic story about himself. He was born of good family in Monongahela, Pa., 23 years ago. When he became well grown he removed to Pittsburgh and began selling diamonds. After getting possession of $3,000 worth of the stones he left for parts unknown. Later he turned up at Nashville, Tenn., and was employed by the Godfrey Manufacturing Company in the capacity of bookkeeper. The next that is known of him he was in South Bend, under the name of Dr. J. A. Smith. He remained there for some time, living at the Oliver House.

Some time after leaving South Bend he appeared in New Orleans under the name of Dr. A. J. Waney. When arrested at the Indiana National Bank Strouse was attempting to cash a check for $175.50, which was indorsed by W. L. Rice of this city, a prominent real estate man. Rice had met Strouse in Toronto, Can., and the two had become well acquainted.

BREAD GOES UP.

Pittsburg People Paying Big Price for Staff of Life.

Rail grocers in Pittsburg are complaining because the price of bread has been advanced to them by the large bakers of Pittsburg. From all accounts unless dear drops, according to some of the bakers, there will be another rise in the wholesale price. Should this take place the retail dealers will be compelled to advance the price at the "staff of life" to six cents a loaf to the consumer, something that has not been heard of for years. Some of the Pittsburg retail dealers are now charging six cents.

The manufacturers feel that the rapid advance in the price of flour warranted a rise long ago, but a fear of competition delayed the rise until after a number of the largest dealers "got together" on the project. With this "understanding" the retail grocers throughout the county were notified that the wholesale price of bread would be 4.5 cents a loaf, and it is at this rate that the grocer has been handling the product of the bakers ever since the announcement some days ago.

With the margin of profit on a loaf of bread cut about 25 per cent, the grocers do not feel in the best of humor and instead of pushing the sale of bread they are advancing an argument for the consumption of cakes and pies, two articles that were not advanced by the bakers.

Many of the small bakers have cut down the size of their loaves and maintained the old wholesale price of four cents a loaf, and by this means managed to hold the good will of the retail dealer. Loaves which recently sold for nine cents in Pittsburg are now being disposed of at 10 cents each, while former five cent squares now bring six cents.

PUSHING COLLECTIONS.

Auditor General is After Limited Concerns for Taxes.

Harrisburg, Aug. 4.—Auditor General William P. Snyder is pushing collections and up to the present time receipts are more than $1,000,000 over the same period last year. The department is now notifying limited partnerships that they must register at the State Department or be penalized. It is said that considerable money will be realized from such partnerships which do business in Pennsylvania and evade payment of taxes.

The Auditor General is also after the foreign corporations that are chartered by other States and come into Pennsylvania and do business without registering and paying the annual taxes. One hundred of these corporations that have been evading the payment of taxes have been notified that they have been discovered and a settlement made, and that they must pay. It is expected that the department will get $1,000,000 out of this class of corporations which have not registered in Pennsylvania, but which have gone on from year to year doing business and shirking the payment of taxes.

One of these foreign corporations has been made to disgorge $13,000 back taxes due Pennsylvania, and another was glad to pay back taxes amounting to $9,000. The Auditor General says there are many more and that all will have to settle.

SUED PRIEST.

Father Carroll and Kittingburg Firemen in a Mix Up.

Kittingburg, August 3.—William Schaefer, manager of the street fair, and president of Hose Company No. 3, appeared before Justice of the Peace Joel Crawford this afternoon and made information against L. A. Carroll, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, charging him with conducting a lottery. A warrant was issued for his arrest, but Father Carroll, who is in Pittsburg, leaving some time this morning. A short time later bail was given for his appearance at September court.

The charge against Father Carroll is a violation of the charges made against the parties who operated double wheels at the street fair, who are held for court before the same Justice this morning. The lottery is alleged to have occurred at a picnic given under the auspices of St. Mary's Church, at the fair grounds on the fourth of July. Every person who purchased a ticket received a chance on a free trip to St. Louis, and the winner was determined by drawing a number from a hat.

NOT CAUSED BY GERMS.

No Dyspepsia Microbe—One Disease That Has No Bacteria.

It really seems refreshing in these days of germs and microbes to know that there is one disease at least where a germicide does not have to be used to cure it.

Dyspepsia is a plain, ordinary, common, miserable disease that has all kinds of causes except a germ. To cure it, the inflamed and irritated organs should be relieved for a time of part of their work. Mi-on-a, the one guaranteed cure, for dyspepsia, meets these conditions and also gives strength and tone to the whole system.

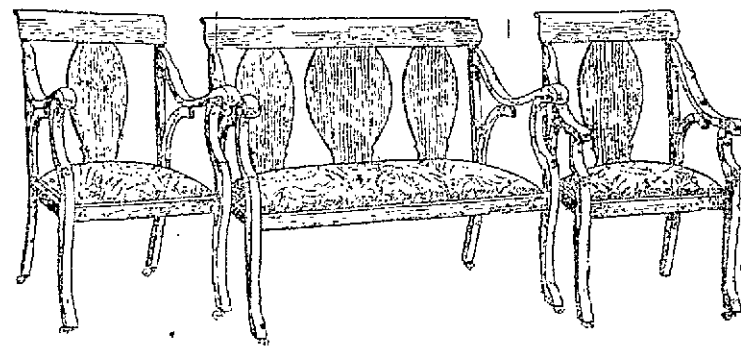

A few days' treatment will show the great good Mi-on-a can do and its use for a reasonable length of time will result in a complete cure. No one should hesitate trying this remedy. It is certain to be successful in curing dyspepsia and stomach troubles as anything can be. A two weeks' treatment costs but 50 cents.

Mi-on-a is sold by A. A. Clarke on the fairest plan imaginable, with an absolute guarantee to refund the money in case it does not cure. Mr. Clarke will sell you Mi-on-a on the basis that if it does not give satisfaction the money is to be returned without a question. A guarantee like this cannot fail to inspire confidence. The purchaser runs no risk whatever.

Our first shipment of Fall Skirts arrived the day before yesterday and it presents a style array that is comprehensive of all that the season has brought forth. The soft fabrics the Men's wear materials, the Scotch mixtures all are among them, made with semi habit back, some of them self trimmed, others trimmed with taffeta braid and self covered buttons. The price range is from $5.00 to $15.00.

A Little Price and Big Value in MEN'S SHIRTS

About five hundred of these Shirts were offered us at a very liberal price concession. It was quite a large lot for us to handle considering our already well stocked shirt department, but we bought them as we knew we would be able to move them quickly at the price we could sell them at. They are exceptionally well made of pinstriped Madras and Percale, all neat patterns on light grounds, just as carefully selected as the patterns in dollar shirts, all in full comfortable sizes. Attached or detached collars and cuffs. You can choose from among them while they last at 50c each.

Matting and Jute PORCH RUGS

This is a season when people live on the porch about as much of the time as they spend in doors. Now there's always more or less dust which accumulates on a porch no matter how cleanly the house wife may be and this is particularly true of this section, so a porch rug is a necessity rather than a luxury. These we are showing are very attractive in design and very durable. Both the Jute and Matting Rugs are of the same dimensions, 36 in. by 66 in. We will close them out at the prices quoted below.

It's Easy to Keep House —WITH A—

Bissell Cyco-Bearing Carpet Sweeper

It saves your Carpets, too, as it takes off the dirt and dust instead of driving it down through as is the case with the corn broom. And it is apparent that this dirt simply acts as a grindstone, cutting the threads and wearing out your carpet in less than one-half the time they should wear out, and it's much easier, too, than the old fashioned method. The Bissell runs perfectly easy, is noiseless, absolutely dust proof, and has the wonderful brush searching power that no other sweeper possesses. For economy's sake alone you cannot afford to be without a "Cyco Bearing Bissell." We have them in mahogany, maple, walnut and oak, and would be pleased to show you our complete assortment.

BURIAL OF PATTISON.

Funeral of Former Governor Is Held From His Home in Philadelphia.

IS MARKED BY LITTLE DISPLAY

There Were No Chosen Pallbearers—
A Small Amount of Heliotrope, the Favorite Flower of the Dead Man
the Only Floral Offering

Philadelphia Aug. 5.—The simplest of ceremonies marked the burial of ex-Governor Robert Emmet Pattison. The funeral services were held at 11 a. m. at his residence in Overbrook, a suburb and were attended by hundreds of persons who had held the former governor in the highest respect and esteem.

The services were conducted by the Rev. G. W. Izer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Covenant and of which for many years Mr. Pattison was a member. Bishop Neely and the Rev. I. M. Bowman of the Park Avenue Methodist Episcopal church assisted. In the drawing room of the Pattison house the body lay. The body was attired in the frock coat and striped trousers which he preferred for afternoon wear, and by which he was familiarly known to thousands of pedestrians of Chestnut street as he walked daily to his office. The coffin was severely plain being covered with black satin.

The funeral was marked by an almost total absence of display. There were no honorary pallbearers and little in the line of floral offerings, except a small amount of simple heliotrope to be seen. The heliotrope was the former governor's favorite flower, and a few of these were laid upon the casket. The lid bore only the name of the deceased and the dates of his birth and death. Interment was made privately in West Laurel Hill cemetery.

Governor Pennypacker and former Governor William A. Stone and nearly every Democratic politician of prominence in Pennsylvania attended the funeral. Among the numerous floral offerings were beautiful tributes from William Jennings Bryan, former Democratic National Chairman, Harry and James M. Guffey.

Democrats Make Nominations

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—The Democratic state convention nominated State Senator Cornelius for governor and Senator George J. McGraw for United States senator to succeed Nathan B. Scott. The proceedings throughout appeared to be in accordance with the wishes of Henry G. Davis, the Democratic candidate for vice president. There is no question about the convention being almost unanimously in favor of the white supremacy proposition and yet at the request of Mr. Davis it was kept out of the platform leaving out 87 votes out of 171.

ALL OVER BUT THE VOTING.

Colonel Likins, editor of the Prohibition Tribune and field marshal of the Prohibition campaign, announces that the battle for T. Scott Dunn, Prohibition candidate for Sheriff, is already won. He found "the people"
against Kiefer and not for Hornbeck,
because the former is the candidate
of the bosses and the latter is an aristocrat. If we remember correctly, Kiefer had no opposition for the nomination for Sheriff, and we feel sure that nobody who ever knew Biddle Hornbeck would accuse him of being an aristocrat!

Having disposed of the Sheriff fight, Colonel Likins turns his attention to the District Attorneyship, and makes the remarkable statement that a Democratic Supreme Court Justice,
meaning Hon. S. L. Mestrezat, dictated
both the Democratic and the Republican nominations, and that he is going to trade off Hughes to elect his nephew, Hudson, under an understanding that for this "influence" the Republicans are to abandon Kiefer and vote for Hornbeck. The conclusion is ultimately arrived at, without a clear explanation, however, that both Hudson
and Hornbeck are doomed to defeat,
and that the candidates who have the "clinch" on the situation are Dunn
and Robinson, Prohibition candidates for Sheriff and District Attorney, respectively.

Colonel Likins is a lightning calculator, but the accuracy of his results may well be questioned. He assures us that "the people" are against both Kiefer and Hornbeck, and subsequently he imparts the information that the Republicans are "for Hornbeck under the deal" with Justice Mestrezat.
If Hornbeck is the Republican, as well as the Democratic vote, it looks as if he had a sure thing in spite of "the people"; and if "the people" are against Hornbeck, and he is "doomed to defeat" at the hands of the Democrats because he is "an aristocrat,"
and if Justice Mestrezat can't deliver the Republican goods, it is plain that Kiefer has practically no more opposition for election than he had for his nomination.

The devious, involved and contradictory propositions of Colonel Likins
may be somewhat reconciled and more clearly understood by substituting for
"the people" what he evidently means
"the Prohibitionists." This makes plain. He means that the Prohibitionists are for the Prohibition candidates.

and with no more than the usual exceptions the same can be said for the other candidates. They will have the practically undivided support of their parties, and as this is a Presidential year, and as Fayette county is overwhelmingly Republican on national issues, the election of the whole Republican county ticket by handsome majorities is a foregone conclusion.

Colonel Likins comes from Kentucky, where the neighbors are of pretty strong betting proclivities, and if he can infuse enough of his enthusiasm and some of the Kentucky custom into the Prohibition friends, perhaps some of them may be persuaded to take a million-to-one shot on Dunn and Robinson.

They won't win, of course, but they can remember ever afterward with little thrills that will gently and pleasantly stir their sporting blood, how much they would have been worth if they had won.

A GOOD MAN BUT NOT SAFE.

Idle ovens being fired, new ovens being built, these be the signs of oncoming prosperity in the Connellville coke region. The shadow that hung over the impending election has been lifted. There is no longer any reasonable doubt of the outcome. We shall continue to enjoy the prosperity that a sound financial system was the prime means of bringing to the country, and which a deluded Democracy, led by Populism and Socialism, would have utterly blasted and destroyed.

This same Democracy, having returned to "saner" methods, solicits
the confidence of the country and asks that the reigns of power be given over into its hands. It presents as its candidate a man who claims to be a Gold Democrat, but who admits that he voted for Bryan and Free Silver in 1896 and 1900.

A man who is twice willing to sacrifice his convictions to party exigencies and party demands is quite likely to do it a third, a fourth, a fifth time.

The major portion of the Democratic party is still infected with the Free Silver plague. If by any means the party should be successful, it is reasonable to suppose that a return to unsound financial doctrines, it made
the unmitigated policy of the party,
would influence Judge Parker to act officially as he voted individually in the last two Presidential campaigns.
If he went with his party and against his convictions then would he not do so again?

We have no means of judging the future of a man but by his past and so judging the Democratic candidate for President such must be the verdict.

Judge Parker may be a good man, and a Sound Money Democrat but his record shows that he is not a safe man to vote for.

GAMBLING.

Gambling seems to be a hard word
to define.

Some would confine it to cards; others to anything that contains the element of chance. Some draw no distinction between betting on the races and betting on the markets, yet the one is generally considered profligate and the other businesslike. The laws have suppressed lotteries with a stern hand, but they flourish unmolested and popular at church fairs, social and fraternal gatherings.

As a matter of fact, we are all gamblers in some form or some sense.
In some periods of our lives, we all take chances and make wagers. The problem of human existence is itself
one great gamble.

The only difference between gamblers is that some are vicious and corrupt while others are mere sports
of fate.

The good old picnic tune seems to have descended upon us.

Greene county Republicans ought to see to it that the colored men's cooperative farm and community proposed to be established in Somerset county is moved over into Greene. With proper colonization, the Rockwater Democracy could be ground to powder
under the crushing weight of a good,
safe Republican majority in the State of Greene.

Bread and meat are both so high
up in the air that the poor and needy find it difficult to get them down.

The mine officials of the Meyersdale region have been making speeches
abusing the local papers, and the latter now have their sayings. It is an unequal contest between the idle wind that pasesh by and the cold types that imprint the assaults upon the memory.

Young S. Arouse was one of the bad gamblers. He played the ponies, the ponies worked him and he worked the community. He will now work it out in prison.

The Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee rejoices in the significant name of Cowherd. He promises to "round up" a Democratic majority in the lower house of Congress this fall. He makes some remarkably confident claims so far as Pennsylvania is concerned, and if the balance of his estimates are figured on the basis of this State, we predict that Congressman Cowherd will be found to be a better herder of cows than of Congressmen.

Edw. Tibbs will not disappear from the footlights of publicity even in the seclusion of the penitentiary.

The Prohibition Tribune declares that God will never forgive the Prohibition party unless it gives Swallow 600,000 votes. In this case, the Prohibition party is doomed to be accused, cast out and forever destroyed. The party has one consolation, however.
It hasn't far to go to arrive at its destination.

The issue of $7,500,000 of bonds by a Maryland coal company indicates that money is easy and business prospects good.

The Retort Courteous.

The West Newton Times-Sun protests against any attempt to repair the bridge across the Youghiogheny river
there, which bridge has been condemned and is asserted to be "a bridge
of punk and piles of crumbling nigger
heads which so far have sustained each other, but which are liable to collapse at any moment like a pack
of cards into utter ruin."

The West Newton bridge is a "bone-ness shanty" and like the "shanty" will some day fall into small bits if the ever-reforming press does not force the building of a new one or the catastrophe comes.

The Somerset Standard describes a graphic terms a new horse that has recently arrived in the progressive town of Mount Pleasant, and expresses the opinion that its elegance is almost enough to tempt one to die.

Undertaking is a solemn business,
but it has its lighter vein.

The Mountaintop New Dominion records the fact that the Women's Suffrage Association holds its State Convention at Mount Pleasant, August 10, and that on the same date the National Guard goes into camp at Huntington, and draws the deduction that it is always wise to take precautionary measures.

Editor Fleming is most ungrateful.
We wouldn't have thought it of him.
Perhaps it never occurred to him that the ladies dated their convention to suit the convenience with a view of having the "protection and support" of the ever gallant soldiers. Women are foolish in many things, but when it comes to firing with the men they are suffragists no longer. They have the honor the male creature is a non-petitioner.

The Warren O. Tribune expresses the opinion that Bryan is drifting into Socialism.

He won't have far to drift.

The New Castle Herald calls upon the municipal authorities to compel property owners to trim their shade trees, particularly the lower branches,
that interfere with pedestrians.

There are not so many shade trees
in Connellville as there are in New Castle, but there are some that need
the same kind of trimming.

The Fairmont Times advises its readers to do nothing but loaf when they go away for their vacation; not to mingle with the crowds; not to hunt, fish or swim; but to live like Indians, get near to Nature's heart
and be upon her bosom.

This sounds like a lazy man's advice, and the Indian part of it suggests rum and tobacco. Does Fairmont really need slackwater to be entirely civilized?

WHERE PARKER WILL FALL.

Roosevelt Has Nothing to Explain, but
the Judge Has Much.

Uniontown Standard: President Roosevelt's address in accepting the nomination was admirable in tone and grasp, and is conceded even by the opposition to have strengthened his candidate. His task in squaring himself with the Chicago Platform was easy, for he is in full accord with all party and his party is thoroughly united in support of its platform and candidate. Judge Parker's acceptance will be a more difficult task. His party's position on a good of the leading issues of the campaign is a blank, because the St. Louis Convention was unable to agree on the money question.
Judge Parker must therefore define
the party's position on this question,
and we cannot do so without displeasing either the Gold Democrats or the Bryan following.

The Old Fashioned Knot the Best.
Washington Reporter: The Con-nellville Courier does not favor what is known as "self-marriages," where the couple securing the license merely acknowledge before the register of the county that they take each other as man and wife. Besides losing its blinding force, according to The Courier,
the minister is cheated out of a good fat fee, and the ministers, especially in this vacation season, need all the dollars they can scrape together. There will be many readers who will voice
the sentiment of the esteemed Connellville contemporary, and who favor sticking to the good old-fashioned ceremony.

Want Fayette County License Rules.
Canonburg Notes: The court acted wisely in giving a few pointers to the constables with regard to reporting
those who are violating the liquor laws. Now if our honorable judges will lay down the law to the brewers and dealers in some such manner as that prescribed by the Fayette county court, we believe that the evils arising from the sale of and indulgence in strong drinks in Washington county will be greatly lessened.

IS NOT A BAD TOWN.

Dunbar's Reputation for Disorder Not Deserved a Correspondent Says.

BURGESS SPEAKS GOOD WORD.

John Quinn Had the Mt. Pleasant Base Ball Team at His Mercy on Wednesday, Striking Out Twenty of Their Batemen.

Dunbar, Aug. 5.—According to the report of Burgess D. K. Cameron, generally speaking Dunbar is enjoying a period of peace and quietness. He has not had anyone up before him for a hearing since the 15th day of July. Of course there has been some robbing going on, but the robbers were not caught. The deportment of the town in general has been very good, although there has not been any regular police officer on duty since the resignation of Reuben Marietta. Dunbar may hear the name of being a rough town, yet after all it is just about as law-abiding as many of our sister towns. Considerable of the disorder of the town is among the lower class of the foreign element and as there has been a marked exodus of that class from this place it may probably be the cause for such an exceptionally quiet and peaceful period.

The game of ball between the Royal Arcanum lodge of this place and the Mt. Pleasant Royal Arcanum team, mention of which was made in last night's issue of The Courier and which follows in detail, was one of the best played that the local team has ever played. The third game between the two teams, which will be played in Connellsville at the Marietta & Stillwagon park, August 17, promises to stir up even more interest than the two previous games.

Mrs. Ezra Burke and son, Edgar, of Uniontown, were the guests of relatives here yesterday.

Some few weeks ago the Pennsylvania Railroad Company started to run Sunday excursion to Pittsburgh, but for some reason the order was recalled, but new circulars have been sent out naming every other Sunday being given with August 7. This now makes an excursion every Sunday, the B. & O. having the alternate Sunday.

J. F. Lutz of Jeannette paid our town a hurried business call Wednesday evening.

Jacob Swearingen is having a well drilled on his lot. His well, which was a dug one, was one of those to fall during the threatened water famine. His well will make the fifth well that has been drilled up until the present time.

Mrs. Jane McGee, who has been the guest of her son, R. J. McGee, for several weeks, left today for her home in Smithfield.

The A. O. U. W. and D. of H. excursion over the B. & O. yesterday to Olympia Park passed through here yesterday morning, but it did not seem to be very heavily patronized. The occasion was the event of the order's eleventh annual outing.

Charles Bae of Connellsville was here yesterday canvassing the town for the Saturday Evening Post and the Ladies' Home Journal. He met with considerable success.

Miss Edna Duncan, who has been visiting in Lebanon for some time, returned home Wednesday evening. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Ada Krum, who will visit her brother Frank of this place.

John Quinn, who has made himself famous by playing ball about here, will leave this week for Pottsville, where he will visit for a few days.

S. Weisinger of Petersburg, Pa., was a caller in our town recently. He was registered at the Hotel Central.

John Stanley of Mt. Braddock was here a short time last evening.

DUNN'S CASH STORES

129, 131, 133 N. PITTSBURG STREET, CONNELLVILLE, PA.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western, Pennsylvania—Showers Friday; Saturday fair; fresh south shifting to west winds.

The End of a Busy Week

Friday and Saturday of this week winds up this sale. We told you in the beginning that it was a determined and persistent effort to empty our shelves. Told you to come and see and satisfy yourself that there was never anything like it as to goods and prices heretofore. So far it has been a busy week—really more goods sold than we expected to sell, more people here than we had any idea would be here. Below we mention some of the good things for these last two days. Lots of things on sale here on these days that we do not mention because the quantities are so small that they are hardly worth mentioning, but for that same reason the prices on these are lower if possible in proportion.

A Few Suits

Not very many. Some that you did not buy for $5.00. We'll see if they will go for $3.00. Not a very big assortment to choose from but the little price makes it worth your while to come and see if just what you want is not here.

Some New Carpets

The Kerreck Brussels is all gone—went the first day of the sale. For Friday and Saturday we are going to give you 5 patterns Cotton Chain Ingrain Carpet. Sold for 40c, 45c and 50c the yard. Patterns are good, especially good for bed room Carpets. Sale price will be 30c the yard.

Some Muslim Underwear

A whole table full in the Cloak Room. Ladies' and Children's Garments one-third off the regular prices.

Some More Dress Goods

More patterns that sold for 50c and 60c the yd. Pretty near school time now and these are especially suited for school dresses. Sale price will be 25c the yard.

Some More Silks

Some fancy and some plain. Sold for 75c, 85c and $1.00 the yard. Most of the pieces have enough in them for full dresses. Sale price will be 50c the yard.

We have tried to make these last two days as interesting from a price view as we could. In fact we can not understand how you can afford to stay away.

CHAPTER VI

PAUL was a little late at the office the next morning and he was there about the time the old lawyer came in. He was a good deal older than Paul and he had a very kind face.

"Oh that is all right," responded Paul. "I am glad you are here. I suppose you have been thinking of me. I have been thinking of you very much."

Paul looked confused. Well, we were to the theater and after that had a late supper. He explained and he was after 11 before I returned to my room."

"I don't care how late you are out or what you did," said Paul. "I am glad you are here. I suppose you have been thinking of me. I have been thinking of you very much."

WILL NOT NEGOTIATE

Report That a Conference Would Be Held Is Denied by Packers.

ALL CONTRACTS BEING FILLED

A Trainload of Immigrants, Direct from Ellis Island, and of All Nationalities, Were Smuggled into Big Plants and Put to Work.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—In a statement given out by the packers the report that negotiations are in progress to bring about another conference between the packers and the labor leaders is declared to be entirely unfounded. The packers assert that there is not the slightest possibility of further conferences with the strike leaders. According to this statement the progress being made at the plants is satisfactory to all the packers; more men are being employed daily; all contracts and current orders are being made at lower prices than before the strike commenced. In a table accompanying the statement it is shown that the total number of men at work at all points is more than 29,000, distributed as follows:

Armour & Co., 9,115; Swift & Co., 3,623; Nelson Morris & Co., 3,548; National Packing company, 4,105; Libby, McNeil & Libby, 3,211; Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, 1,329; Cudahy & Co., 1,431. With this number of men at work, the packers claim to have shipped a total of 831 carloads of fresh meats from all points.

Beyond seeing that the order prohibiting the deliveries of ice to retailers who have been hauling their meat from the stockyards themselves since the teamsters' strike, the strikers did very little. Up to date the ice supply of 100 of these markets has been cut off.

A New Departure.

The packers introduced a distinct novelty in strike breaking—a trainload of immigrants said to be direct from Ellis Island. The immigrants were unloaded at obscure spots about the yards and were smuggled in groups of 10 or 12 to the various departments where the newcomers were put to work. This took place while representatives of the packers were reiterating the declaration made that scores of applicants for work are being turned away because only skilled men are being offered employment. There was no mistaking the immigrants who compose the latest acquisition to the packers' force being loaded down with boxes, bags and bundles wrapped in cloths, all speaking eloquently of Mediterranean points. Others carried big grips and some few the small box-like trunks frequently seen in the luggage of steerage passengers from Baltic ports. On most of the luggage the "passed" tag of the customs house office still adhered.

Jealously clinging to these precious possessions and staggering under their weight, the immigrants were quietly taken from central points to the departments where the imported men earned upon active duty. Private police and packing house officials accompanied each group and saw the newcomers started at work. The newcomers were obviously impressed with the vastness of packing town. They talked in subdued tones, a perfect babel of strange tongues.

Call Expects Conference. International Secretary Homer D. Call of the butchers' organization declared that outside influences are again trying to bring about a settlement of the stockyard strike. "I expect to meet an intermediary," said Mr. Call. This person is a third party, but Mr. Call declined to indicate who the person is, nor would the secretary discuss further the prospect for an immediate end of the struggle.

"I expect no direct overtures from the packers before Monday," continued Mr. Call, "but by that time I hope to accomplish something of a beneficial nature. By Monday the packers will be ready to talk to us."

It was reported that the intermediary referred to by Secretary Call had a conference with Louis Swift, and that Mr. Call, the intermediary and Mr. Swift would meet at Swift & Co.'s stockyard office.

President Donnelly, summoned back to Chicago by International Secretary Call, is expected in the city shortly. Mr. Donnelly said in Kansas City that any move for an end of the strike must be made by the packers, and he wished he "could settle with honor today." Officials of the butcher workers' organization severely criticized the utterances of a police inspector who is alleged to have said that after this rioters would be taken to the morgue instead of to the police station. "The police," said Secretary Call, "are doing more to incite riot and lawlessness than are the strikers. Such bravado is enough to drive some of our men, especially the hot-heads, to carry revolvers themselves. A cup of beer would do the rest. We have been trying to conduct a peaceful strike."

Numbers of strikebreakers employed in the packing plants are reported as deserting in bunches of 50 or more when paid off. It is claimed by the union leaders that fully 50 per cent of the strikebreakers are men who, having been idle for a time, simply wanted a chance to make a little ready money, and having accomplished this purpose, are quitting at their first opportunity.

Firemen at Connellsville. On account of the firemen's parade at Connellsville in connection with the meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's Association, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run a special train from Connellsville to Pittsburgh on August 11, leaving Connellsville at 10 P. M. and stopping at all intermediate stations.

POTTER SHOCKS CHURCHMEN

His Attendance at Opening of Saloon Causes Many Protests.

New York, Aug. 5.—Bishop Potter has brought the house tumbling down about his head for his attendance at the formal opening of a saloon at Bleeker and Mulberry streets on Tuesday, and the part he took in the ceremonies. The bishop agrees with certain members of the City club, who are anxious to vie with the English Earl Grey in his efforts to promote temperance by purifying the saloon atmosphere and selling good liquor at low prices.

Bishop Potter is not alone among prominent churchmen in his stand on this question, however. The archbishop of Canterbury gave his indorsement to the efforts of Earl Grey in the same cause and in this country Bishop Fallows of Illinois has given his official sanction to the manufacture of pure beer, and even engaged in the business for a time. But there are other bishops and clergymen, and, in addition, prohibitionists, who are shocked at his opinions and conduct. The first shot was fired from Asbury Park, on Tuesday, and Dr. Potter's next assailant is Bishop Isaac Lee Nicholson of Milwaukee, who says:

"Bishop Potter's whole connection with the affair has been disgraceful, and I am personally humiliated over his work."

From Columbus, O., from Superintendent Baker, comes the cry that "the element of evil is there as much as in other saloons," and the scheme is also condemned by Robert Graham of the Church Temperance society. Even the Rev. Dean Richmond Dabitt, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Brooklyn, who was ordained by Bishop Potter, has been unable to keep silent and says that he "utterly dissents from the bishop and his temperance conferees."

Consolidation Coal Company Issue Over $7,000,000 Worth.

Fairmont, W. Va., Aug. 5.—Seven and a half million dollars worth of bonds at 4½ per cent have been authorized to be issued by the Consolidation Coal company of Maryland, to be applied to the retiring of other bonds, the payment of outstanding debts and obligations and the development of the property of the company. Practically all mines in this county and Harrison form a part of the Consolidation Coal company. Besides, the company owns 25,000 acres of undeveloped coal in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and a part of the bond issue will be kept on hand to develop this territory at any time the company wishes. C. W. Watson, president of the company, says: "There being no immediate necessity for the early development of any of the coal lands now owned by the company, the enlargement of its present facilities for handling any of its products, no application of any of the reserve bonds will probably be made for some time. It was, however, deemed best by the board in authorizing this mortgage to provide at this time for future needs."

FAIRLY FLOODED WITH BEER.

120 Kegs Were Used at a Wedding at Continental No. 3.

An officer who was designated to do police duty at a wedding among the foreigners at Continental No. 3 reports that in all 120 kegs of beer were used at the celebration of the nuptials, the beer being secured from different brewing companies. On last Saturday night 70 kegs were secured, on Monday 20 kegs more and on Tuesday 30 kegs. The wedding festivities continued four days, and there was no serious trouble, the presence of an officer keeping the foreigners in check.

On Sunday the foreigners drank the beer they had secured Saturday, but they were not permitted to dance nor make a big noise, as on other days. There was a big crowd of people and a large supply of beer, and the presence of an officer was necessary to maintain order.

THE TORPEDO EXPLODED.

Mary Hober Pounded It With Hammer and Was Badly Injured.

Mary, the six-year-old daughter of Mike Hober, was painfully injured by the explosion of a railroad torpedo, Tuesday, at Continental No. 1. While going to the store she found the torpedo on the railroad track and took it home with her. She then got a hammer and some nails and succeeded in driving several of the nails through the torpedo without exploding it. At last the hammer missed one of the nails and struck the torpedo, which exploded with great force.

The pieces flew in every direction, a number of them striking the child and inflicting painful injuries. Her left leg, both hands and wrists were badly lacerated. A physician was called and dressed her wounds. Her injuries are not considered serious.

DEN OF COPPERHEADS.

An Ophiophagous Snake Kills 11 of a Nest of 13 Reptiles.

While picking blackberries in the mountains near White Rocks on Tuesday, Simon Fisher, Sr., came upon a den of copperhead snakes. He found 13 of the reptiles and killed 11 of them. To prove his experience he strung 10 snakes on a big stick and brought them to Ophiophagous snake yard, where they were viewed by 700 people. Can this be beaten?

TRAFFIC BETTER.

Business on the Railroads is Improving All Around.

An all-around betterment in freight traffic during the past week is shown in reports from the roads over the whole country. This is especially noticeable in the reports from the railroads of the middle west. The outlook for crops is one of the best in years and all of the big crop-hauling systems are preparing for a big grain haul. In the Pittsburgh district it was said by an official yesterday the coal and ore traffic shows an advance and the season's total will undoubtedly be as large if not larger than last year's. This is true of all the coal-hauling lines. The tonnage record of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie alone for July shows that more than 4,000 more cars of coal were handled in that month than in the same month of last year. Merchandise shipments are moderate.

So far as the crops are concerned, it is said that the rate and foods that have caused a loss of possibly 25 per cent of the wheat crop in Kansas are the making of a heavy crop more than last year, and unless unforeseen occurrences intervene, Kansas will give its railroads all they can do to move the crops. Along the other big Western systems the same conditions are reported. Early damages to crops have been offset by three weeks of splendid weather. Already the confidence in better business has stimulated traffic in general merchandise and ere long the early winter shipments will keep all of the available box cars busy. Reports from the Gould lines, the Burlington, the Northwestern, the Santa Fe and the St. Paul roads to the Pittsburgh representatives show that all are handling a heavy general freight tonnage.

Sees Many Changes.

James Gorley, who is in Uniontown on a visit from Kentucky, had not been in Uniontown before for 30 years, and was astonished at the changes that have taken place there in that period, both in faces and in buildings. The Standard says: Mr. Gorley is a son of the late Randolph Gorley, who was a brother of James T. and Alfred Gorley of that place. He is in the law department of the detective bureau at Louisville, Ky.
